

CONFLICT-OF-INTEREST DISCLOSURE FORM

Note: A potential or actual conflict of interest exists when commitments and obligations are likely to be compromised by the party's other material interests, or relationships (especially economic), particularly if those interests or commitments are not disclosed.

This Conflict-of-Interest Form should indicate whether the party has an economic interest in, or acts as an officer or a director of, any outside entity whose financial interests would reasonably appear to be affected. The party should also disclose any personal, business, or volunteer affiliations that may give rise to a real or apparent conflict of interest. Relevant established regulations and financial conflicts must be abided by.
